

Here is a sample of a resolution that you could consider presenting in your constituency organization, regardless of which of the 3 parties to which you might belong.

"Whereas many Albertans firmly believe that Alberta Progressive Conservatives can be defeated if the Alberta Liberals, NDP and Greens form an electoral alliance, and

"Whereas the combined support of these parties committed to a greener economy and greater social justice is already about 40%, and an electoral alliance will attract many currently disillusioned non-voters

"Be it resolved that this Convention direct the party leader to initiate a public negotiation to conclude an electoral alliance with the leaders of the other two parties to fairly allocate seats to each of the three parties for exclusive nominations in the next provincial election."

Here is a sample of a resolution that you could consider presenting to your trade union local or to other organizations of which you are a member.

"Whereas many Albertans firmly believe that Alberta Progressive Conservatives can be defeated if the Alberta Liberals, NDP and Greens form an electoral alliance, and

"Whereas the combined support of these parties committed to a greener economy and greater social justice is already about 40%, and an electoral alliance will attract many currently disillusioned non-voters

"Be it resolved that this Convention/AGM direct our Union/Association President (and others) to encourage and facilitate a public negotiation of all the three party leaders to conclude an electoral alliance to fairly allocate seats to each of the three parties for exclusive nominations in the next provincial election."

We would encourage you to send this resolution or a letter based on similar ideas to the leaders of the three parties in question. Their e-mail addresses follow:

Liberals

Leader: David Swann: calgary.mountainview@assembly.ab.ca
Deputy Leader: Laurie Blakeman: edmonton.centre@assembly.ab.ca

New Democrats

Leader: Brian Mason: Edmonton.HighlandsNorwood@assembly.ab.ca
Second member: Rachel Notley: edmonton.strathcona@assembly.ab.ca

Greens

Leader: Joe Anglin: greenfoot@gmail.com